January 2007

From the Co-ordinator

Happy New Year to all of the 247 current Red House Members from the team at Gallery M.

The exhibition program for the year ahead is almost full, with a good variety of artwork. Please try to support the events at Gallery M by attending the openings; it is a great way to meet with your fellow members, and gives you the opportunity to network with others for possible shared exhibitions etc.

If you haven't yet had the chance to see the Christmas Community exhibition, it is well worth a look, and you can vote for your favourite artwork in the "People's Choice" award. The exhibition closes 14 January.

I would like to thank all the volunteers who helped out during 2006, and we look forward to your continued support in 2007. At the same time, some of the shop consignees who have opted for the lower 22% commission will be getting a reminder that they need to volunteer at least three hours once a month to continue with the lower commission rate. If you are unable to commit to the minimum volunteer hours, and you would like to change your commission, please contact us as soon as possible

Also - thanks to Patritti Wines for donating a great range of wines and non-alcoholic juices for our Gallery events during 2006; their Cellar Door is open 6 days a week at Dover Gardens.

To round off 2006 I would like to acknowledge the contribution made by Cr Vin Brown. Vin has been a huge supporter of the Red House Group over the years, and represented the Council on the Red House Board. Thanks Vinny - the Red House Group appreciates all the good work you have done.

See you all soon at Gallery M..... Julie

SAD NEWS

Red House members and friends of Jenny Turner will be sad to hear that she passed away on 4 December 2006, after a short illness. Our sympathy to her family.

CHRISTMAS HAMPER RAFFLE

Thank you to all Red House members who contributed items for the raffle, drawn on 20 December. 400 tickets were sold at 50 cents each, with $200 raised.

Items were donated by: Pat Adam; Shirley Ginsberg; Margaret Harris; Geoffrey Herbert; Audra Heye; MCC administration; Julie Pritchard; Alex Sagan; Ralph Spraakman; Marlie Unmuth; Cr Irene Whennan; and Beverley Whittington.

The lucky winner was Mrs Watson of South Brighton, and she was delighted to have the hamper delivered to her door.

We would like to have a bigger and better raffle this year, so if you have a suitable item to donate, any contributions would be most welcome.
