MAY 2009

From the Co-ordinator

Hi fellow Red House members

The year is certainly racing along, especially as we gear up for the major exhibition '57th Blake Prize Touring Exhibition' in June / July. Don't forget, if you create work with a spiritual theme that would be suitable to display and sell as "merchandise" during the exhibition let us know as soon as possible to assist our planning.

We are now fully booked for exhibitions for 2009, and have quite a few proposals for 2010. Some exhibition periods have already been allocated, and once again we will present a very interesting and diverse program.

The next exhibition 'Peeking Through Someone Else's Window' previews on Friday 22 May (5-7pm) and will be officially opened on Sunday 24 May at 2pm. Signatures Cafe (adjacent to Gallery M) will be open on Friday night with live music and 'Happy Hour' from 5-6pm. Coffee and light meals and snacks will be available on Sunday. Gallery M hospitality is generously donated by Patrilli Wines.

Marion Learning Festival in conjunction with Adult Learners Week will feature at the MCC again in August, with the theme 'Spring into Learning'. We are hoping to have some artists doing workshops or demonstrations, either in Gallery M or in the cafe area of the MCC. If you are interested, please contact us for more details. Weaving, textiles, jewellery, painting - any kind of artwork that can be set up easily is appropriate.

I would like to send a special get well message to Shirley Ginsberg, who has had a bad fall and injured her knee. She is recuperating in Blackwood Hospital - I am sure all her friends at the Red House Group wish her a speedy recovery.

I look forward to seeing you all again soon,

Julie
