

Twenty Ten

Artwork in various media by members of the Red House Group Inc

The new year 2010 starts with a new whole gallery exhibition by members of the Red House Group Inc.

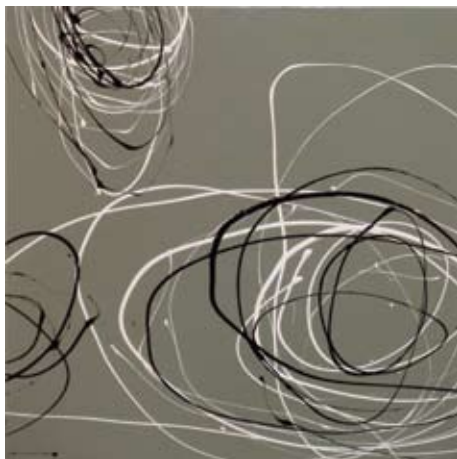

The title 'Twenty Ten' relates to the new year. As there is no specific theme for the exhibition, it will be a varied display of artwork in a wide range of media. Ninety artists will be showing their work.

The Red House Group has been in existence since 1994, and during that time over 1060 artists have become involved with the group. The main aims are to provide a focus for arts and culture in the City of Marion and beyond.

The Red House Group is an artist managed, not for profit organisation, and it operates Gallery M on behalf of the City of Marion. Gallery M opened in the Marion Cultural Centre in 2001; and is a versatile space with lofty walls over four metres high, and more than sixty five linear metres of hanging space.

The artists range from professional practitioners to keen amateurs, and art work in Red House member exhibitions is always of a high standard, with styles to suit all tastes.

Artists include watercolourists Natalie Lewcock, Brian Garner, Helen Mickan and Anne Bates; and porcelain painters Lee Sanders, Marie Sheridan and Jean Stuchbery. Loka Bag has created a colourful abstract painting; Ayaka Sumita has constructed a set of intricately formed porcelain forms. Well known textile artist Margaret Harris has created a 'rag' rug - decorative and practical! Eileen Puschart, whose quirky hand crafted figurines are popular in the Gallery M shop, has created a stunning ceramic piece for this exhibition.

Liz Yates has constructed artwork in natural basketry, Janine Young is displaying a range of jewellery. Photographers include Dian Morgan, Steven Duncan, Leonid Olyjnyk, Enid Milner, John Milner, Don Oswald, Monique Sengpiel and Stephanie Schrapel.

Sculptors Kon Heyer, Roger Hjordliefson, Makram Iskander, Tim Sherman and Dorothy Vertue have made pieces in various media, including metal, wood and clay. Tony Horsefall has constructed a finely crafted timber box, hand finished to perfection.

Bev Bills, Glenda Bowen are showing printmaking, Jan Hill has created a pair of large silk screened textile hangings.

Paintings range from representational to abstract, from tiny detailed studies to large works on canvas. There is no size restriction for work in this exhibition, giving artists who like to work in a larger format the chance to show their new work.

Red House Group members also have a range of art and gift items available in the Gallery M shop - high quality items at affordable prices.

New shop artists are always welcome - talk to Gallery M staff for more information.
