SEPTEMBER 2010

From the Co-ordinator

This month we have something a little different at Gallery M - an exhibition opening on a Saturday afternoon - Saturday 4 September. The gallery will be open normal hours (12-4pm), with the Guest Speaker Dr Norris Ioannou at 1pm. The whole gallery exhibition features artwork by Bill Cook, his third solo show at Gallery M. Those of you that know Bill's work will remember how impressive his huge paintings are - it will certainly be one of the major exhibitions this year.

If you enjoy the MCC atmosphere on a Friday night - the café will still be open with live music from 5pm. The gallery will be open as well, but without any opening night activities. Good for a sneak peek if you are coming along on Saturday.

As you can imagine - exhibition changeover weeks, and especially the day of the official launch, are pretty busy. Please try not to bring new stock to be processed for the shop at those busy times, or if that is the only time that you can drop off your work, please understand that we may not always be able to barcode it immediately and get it on display.

Don't forget the AGM this Thursday 26 August, 7.30pm at Gallery M. All members are invited to attend. This is a social event after the meeting takes place - come along and get to know some of your fellow members. BYO supper to share; refreshments provided.

We are still in need of volunteers to help with the staffing of the Gallery M shop - if you have some free time, maybe a couple of hours once a month, and would like to assist, give us a call on 8377 2904.

Hope to see you soon

Julie

THE ART OF GIVING

26 October - 19 November

This half gallery exhibition has limited spaces so return your entry form and $10 as soon as possible to ensure you don't miss out. The quota may be full before the closing date of 30 September.

There is no specific theme, but all artwork will have a price limit of nothing over $250, making the items ideally priced for gift giving at Christmas.

Sold artworks can be taken by the customer once they are fully paid for, and the artist will have the opportunity to replace any sold work, for no extra exhibition fee.

Entry forms are included in this mailout, or can be downloaded at the Red House page at www.gallerym.net.au

Pat Piper (now back from her holiday) sent us a card from Cork, Ireland, where she was enjoying a family reunion.

Helena Nikitins sent us a message from Korcula, Croatia, where she is having a great adventure exploring the European Alps - with her own unique fashion style, I am sure.

Congratulations to Steve Smart

Red House member Steve Smart has been selected by Lang's Gallery as a prize winner in Artist's Palette Magazine Issue 90. Steve has also been invited to submit an Artist Feature in Issue 93 of the Artist's Palette magazine - this will include an insight article and a demonstration article. Well done Steve!

Steve Smart had a successful exhibition 'The First Gig' in Gallery M in October 2009.

SAD NEWS

Our sympathy goes to the family of Red House member Albert Blakebrough, who sadly passed away on 3 July. Albert joined the Red House Group in 1997, back in the old Red House Gallery days, and we had a range of his hand crafted leadlight items for sale in the Gallery M shop. Albert was also a volunteer at the Red House Gallery and Gallery M, and continued to keep in touch even though he was unable to contribute as he had previously.

Our Sympathy also goes to Foundation RHG Member Dean Ormond, whose father passed away recently. Sorry to hear of your loss, Deano, and hope you get in to see us at Gallery M again soon.

Similarly, RHG member Jill Firminger's husband passed away on 16 July. Sympathy to Jill from all your friends at Gallery M.
