April 2011

From the Co-ordinator

Hi fellow Red House members

Another Red House exhibition draws to a close next weekend - a stunning display of artwork, masterfully displayed by Ian and the team. Thanks to everyone for the huge effort setting up this 'hmmm...' exhibition; our fabulous loyal band of volunteers, and welcome to new helpers Tamra & Gloria, and Laura who assisted with hospitality at the opening.

If you have some free time and would like to contribute to the gallery operations by assisting with set up and other exhibition related tasks, you are most welcome. The environment is friendly, and you can learn valuable skills that may help with your own art practice.

Reminder to Red House members that have work in this exhibition - collection of artwork is Monday 4 April. If you cannot come that day between 10am-4pm, make sure you advise us so we do not make unnecessary reminder calls as the day draws to a close.

Artists that have work in the shop should remember to refresh your shop stock on a regular basis - we need new work / new artists for the shop, especially with the swim centre opening soon. Talk to your arty friends to see if they would like to show their work at Gallery M.

We have been watching the construction of 'our new neighbours' the State Aquatic Centre and GP Plus building over the past months, and it is now ready to begin operating. You might be bringing your bathers next time you visit Gallery M!

Julie

CONGRATULATIONS

Red House member Penelope Hillam has been appointed as the Director of The Stanthorpe Regional Art Gallery, in Queensland. She arrived in January just as the rain started to fall, but she remained safe and the gallery and its collection were unaffected by the rising water.

Penelope was previously Director of Ararat Gallery in Victoria. For more info about Stanthorpe Regional Gallery go to www.srag.org.au
