

7teen

An exhibition of artwork in various media by members of the Red House Group Inc

This month Gallery M and the Red House Group are celebrating the 2011 SALA Festival period with an exciting new whole gallery exhibition '7teen'.

The Red House Group Inc is an artist managed non-profit organisation that acts as a focus for art and cultural activities for all individuals and groups in the City of Marion council area and its surrounding region, incorporated in 1994. This exhibition signifies the seventeenth year of the group's operation.

The Red House Group manages Gallery M on behalf of the City of Marion, and Gallery M's lofty ceilings and large exhibition space is perfect for such a diverse exhibition.

2011 also celebrates the tenth year of the Marion Cultural Centre, and '7teen' is exhibition number 201 in the Gallery M calendar – quite an achievement for the Red House Group to have overseen 200 fantastic exhibitions in the past ten years.

Approximately ninety South Australian artists are showing their work, in a wide range of media. A number of RHG members have maintained an active interest in the Red House Group since those early years. Two Foundation members are exhibiting artwork, Billie Adams (ceramics) and Marlie Unmuth (painting).

As well as paintings, drawings and printmaking, photography is also featured. New member Robert Griffiths is exhibiting for the first time; Janine Paris and her daughter Tessa Manning are each showing their photographic skills. Kerry Malec, Robert Miller, Leonid Olijnyk, Stephanie Schrapel are recognised photographers whose work will also be on display. Monique Sengpiel has created a photographic transfer on watercolour paper.

Textile work includes a felted jacket by Christine Beck, a textile sculpture by Denise Avery, hand weaving by Margaret Harris, and a wall hanging by Lynette Brown. Necia Magain has woven a natural fibre basket.

Timber artists are well represented with finely constructed wooden boxes by Anthony Horsfall. Mike O'Donoghue has made a wooden sculpture, and Wilhem Kurvits has created one of his beautifully crafted containers.

Amanda Lewis and Erica McNicol will display hand crafted jewellery.

There are always attention grabbing 3D pieces in a Red House member exhibition, such as Roger Hjorleifson's finely detailed hand built sculptures that are very collectable, as are glass sculptures by Barbara Davis and Stephen Skillitzi. Marty Cielens has made a multi media artist book.

Geoffrey Herbert always makes interesting artwork, and has created a terrazzo gold coin on a stand. Makram Iskandar has made a finely patterned terracotta sculpture. Jeremy Paddick has constructed a 3D plaster sculpture inspired by Lego.

With such a diverse range of artwork on show, there will be something of interest to a broad audience. Many Red House Group members are recognised and well established artists, including Alan Ramachandran, Cathi Steer, Anne Bates, Helen Doubell, John Hamilton, Helen Mickan, Ron Orchard, Margaret Slape-Phillips and Cleone Hoyle.

DEMONSTRATIONS

On each Sunday during the exhibition, artists from the Red House Group will be in Gallery M demonstrating various art techniques.

This is a great opportunity to meet and talk to the artists in a friendly, informal atmosphere.

Entry is free, and everyone is welcome.
