July 2011

From the Co-ordinator -

Hi fellow Red House members

We have been busy these past weeks with a number of tasks, including the processing & issuing of our new look RHG member cards, which are included in this mailout if you have already renewed. We have some new businesses giving discounts to RHG members this year, so remember to support them when you need framing and art supplies. More info about these businesses will be put on the Gallery M web site - www.gallerym.net.au

The next RHG member exhibition is coming up in August - Consignment Notes will be sent to participating artists in the next mail-out. What we would like to promote during exhibitions is more interaction between artists and visitors, in the form of demonstrations (expanding on our 'Meet the Artist' events).

The recent exhibitions (Wild Fibres, and the current Porcelain Art) have had a really terrific atmosphere with some of the artists demonstrating their techniques on a scheduled Sunday during the exhibition. If you would like to paint, draw, sew, knit, weave, make jewellery or any other activity for an hour or so, let us know. We can provide an easel, table etc - you just need to bring your materials and skills along to share.

Thank you to those of you who took the time to respond to my request for support comments to prepare a submission for a Ruby Award this year. It was great to see so many encouraging observations - there really is a great team spirit within the Red House Group. Unfortunately, we just didn't have enough time to give the application justice before the closing date (24 June) - so we have a great head start to make 2012 our year.

I hope to see you all again soon, especially at the launch of the next three exhibitions on Friday 8th July.

Regards - Julie
Julie & the team at Gallery M

Red House Group AGM

7.30pm Thursday 22 September

hopefully attendance will be better due to the later date - not middle of winter.

City of Marion Learning Festival Interactive Craft Market Update

The Red House Group are supporting the City of Marion in this event and there are still a couple of stalls available to Red House Group members who wish to be part of this exciting day on Sunday October 16th 10am - 4pm. Please note - Stallholders must be willing to demonstrate their craft during the day.

If you are interested in being part of this event please contact Irene Whennan by email: irene\_whennan@y7mail.com or on mob. 0402447594 for more details.

Red House Group News

Membership renewals are now due. There are advantages to being a Red House Group member. Firstly there are discounts offered to members from the following business places - Gallery M shop, The Framer, Premier Art Supplies, Artland, Riot Art & Craft, and the Marion Cultural Centre. The list of available discounts will be attached to your new look 2011-2012 membership card! Then there is the opportunity to have a stall at the upcoming October Learning Festival and November MCC 10th Anniversary craft markets being held at the MCC exclusively for RHG members. Just a few examples of why it is worthwhile being a member! Membership renewals are being accepted now!

Congratulations to Brian Garner who has been selected as a finalist in the Waterhouse Natural History Art Prize for a watercolour painting titled "The Resting Place". (This is one of a series of paintings about "Textures of the Forest").

Kay Cunningham has information for anyone interested in plein air painting, ph: 83584178

Members please note that info for the next newsletter is to be received by July 20th with ALL details you wish included (please note this may be edited according to space available however - there is not the time to be chasing up info so items without all details are not included - "please google for details" is not accepted).

Got an idea on how to improve this newsletter
