From the Co-ordinator

Hi fellow Red House members

It seems ages since the close of our last Red House member exhibition, but I would just like to thank Denva, Mary and Bev for assisting with the removal of artwork on Monday 4 April. I would also like to remind exhibitors how important it is to try to pick up your artwork after an exhibition - nearly a quarter of the pieces had to be placed in the storeroom for collection later.

The day after collection is always delivery of new work, which is why we need to have the gallery free. A big thank you to our regulars Ian, Graeme, Dennis and John who helped to display Bill McSwain's vibrant exhibition. Changeover weeks are always the busiest, and as you know any assistance is much appreciated.

The exhibition looks fantastic, and we had a good crowd for the opening on 8 April. We also managed to do some fundraising by raffling a copy of the 11/12 Adelaide Entertainment Book, which we are also selling at Gallery M this year to benefit the Red House Group. For $65 you get a book of valuable offers and coupons worth about $15,000! A great gift for someone that likes to go out, and save money at the same time.

The new State Aquatic Centre launched over the Easter holiday weekend, and Gallery M opened (unusually on public holiday) to attract some extra visitors. There have also been a lot of new visitors here in the past days, all taking advantage of the Swim Centre and the proximity of the facilities at the Marion Cultural Centre.

Bill McSwain's exhibition closes on Sunday 8 May - try to see it before then. The next exhibitions will have two separate openings - the Wild Fibre artists launch 'Divergent Perspectives' on the evening of Friday 13 May, and 'The Closed Schools of Marion' will open on the afternoon of Sunday 15 May.

Hope to see you again soon.

Julie
