November 2011

From the Coordinator

Hi fellow Red House Group members

It's getting to that time of the year again, where we start to focus on Christmas, and the new exhibition year ahead. As this newsletter is being prepared we are sharing in a busy weekend here at the Cultural Centre, with the Marion Learning festival in full swing.

On Sunday 16 October the Red House Group staged an 'Interactive Craft Market' - with a variety of stalls offering items made by RHG members. Each member selling their wares demonstrated aspects of their craft. Thanks to everyone that became involved - especially Irene Whennan, Ines Patrilli and Christe Farrow who co-ordinated the event. "The social and networking aspects of the event have been a great success" Ines and Irene said. "The quality of the work is of a very high standard, and we appreciate everyone that has come along."

The MCC is planning two more markets this year - on Saturday 26 November, and Saturday 10 December. See contact details in the promo (right) if you are interested.

If you are putting work in the next RHG member exhibition, you have your Consignment Agreement and art labels included in this mailout. Please note - this is a DRAWING exhibition, so we are looking forward to seeing how you interpret the notion of 'drawing'.

Shop artists - if you have new stock for the shop, bring it in as soon as possible - customers are already starting to buy items for Christmas. Unfortunately the Cultural Centre will be closed for maintenance from Wednesday 21 December, not re-opening til Wednesday 28 December. We are expecting record sales this Christmas, as each year in the shop the figures are improving. Help us keep up our excellent record!

See you soon - Julie
