From the Co-ordinator

Hi fellow Red House members

We have a busy week ahead at Gallery M, with the AGM this Thursday, 22 September. Please try to come along and support your Red House Group - it is a social evening as well as the Annual General Meeting - BYO supper, with refreshments provided. Each year, we also have a theme to add a bit of fun to the evening. Dress in your best 'Spring' themed outfit, and you might win the lucky prize! It is not too late to attend - just RSVP before Thursday so that we can provide adequate seating and printed info. Nominations for the Board can also be placed on the night. Hope to see lots of you on Thursday night, 7.30pm at Gallery M.

I would also like to officially welcome Denva Whiting to our small team of paid casual staff at Gallery M. In the past month we had a number of members express interest in the newly created position, and it was a difficult decision to choose between some very capable and enthusiastic applicants. Some of you will already know Denva, as she has been volunteering at Gallery M for quite some time, but I hope you get to know her better next time you visit.

Your entry form for the next Red House member exhibition 'Drawing Conclusions too' is in this mailout - we need at least 50 artists to cover the cost of the half gallery fee. Please return your form and $10 fee as soon as possible; remember the artwork must feature drawing techniques, but still can be in any media. Use your imagination to create a piece of artwork that will challenge your senses and reward the viewer. Delivery day is Tuesday 25 October; the opening night is Friday 28 October.

Also with this mailout is an invitation for artists who live in the City of Marion to exhibit work in the '10th Annual City of Marion Community Art exhibition' - in Gallery M from 27 November - 6 January. There is no fee to enter, and as we are celebrating 10 years of Gallery M and the Marion Cultural Centre we want this to be the biggest and best display yet. If you have arty friends who live in Marion, please ask them to contact us for an entry form. Everyone, from 'weekend dabblers' to practising professionals, is encouraged to show a piece of art, to give a true snapshot of what the creative citizens of Marion are capable of.

Lastly, the Red House Group is organising an 'Interactive Craft Market' at the Marion Cultural Centre from 10am-4pm, Sunday 16 October in association with the Marion Learning Festival. Please support your fellow artists and come along and enjoy the atmosphere - there will be craft demonstrations, live music and other activities; Gallery M will also be open from 10 am.

Hope to see you soon - Julie

NEXT RED HOUSE GROUP MEMBER EXHIBITION

'Drawing Conclusions too'

HALF GALLERY

28 October - 18 November 2011

Following the success of the exhibition 'Drawing Conclusions' in 2006, this half gallery exhibition is focused on drawings. As the quote (below) mentions, drawings can be made in all types of ways, so set out with whatever medium you prefer and create something special.

All members who love to draw (in any media) are encouraged to place an entry for this exhibition. Refer to your last Red House news (available online at www.gallerym.net.au if yours has gone into the recycling) for a really interesting quote by artist Roy Ananda, about what constitutes a drawing.

Entry is $10 to cover the Gallery M hire fee. A Consignment Agreement and art labels will be sent to all who are participating in next month's mailout, prior to the exhibition.

OPPORTUNITIES

Carol Martin Millinery Competition

This competition is a lot of fun - for the $20 entry fee you get a bag of treasures from St Vincent De Paul, 263 St Vincent Street, Port Adelaide to stimulate your creativity to make a unique hat out of the objects in the bag! This year's competition has expanded to include new prize categories. These include a best business branded millinery creation and a Jayne Warnes Youth Award.

For more information on the Millinery Competition, including a downloadable entry form and some photos from last years competition, please follow the links on our website. Competition closes Tuesday 4th of October.

The Brighton Markets

An Invitation is extended to artists/artisans who may be interested in a stall at these markets held in St Jude's Church Hall, 444 Brighton Road, Brighton every other Thursday and the last Saturday of the month from 9.00am - 1.30pm. Dates for September & October - 22nd and 24th Sept.; 6th, 20th and 29th October. Contact Cherie Twgden on 83836024.
